How well did I identify and describe an injustice?

The rubric states...	Provides a comprehensive description of why an identified injustice needs to be addressed. Provides a perceptive explanation of the principle(s) of democracy being violated.	Provides a substantial description of why an identified injustice needs to be addressed. Provides a thoughtful explanation of the principle(s) of democracy being violated.	Provides a cursory description of why an identified injustice needs to be addressed. Provides a simplistic explanation of the principle(s) of democracy being violated.	Provides an undeveloped description of why an identified injustice needs to be addressed. Provides a vague explanation of the principle(s) of democracy being violated.
Which means...	The audience has a complete picture of the topic. Any questions asked are likely to be based on a desire to learn more about the topic rather than trying to understand what has been presented.	The information provides the audience with the information they need to understand the topic and any questions are likely to be only to clarify minor details.	The audience has only part of the information they need to understand the topic and will likely have questions about important parts of the topic.	Key pieces of information have been left out and the audience will likely have difficulty understanding the message.
