How well did I develop and support my position concerning humanist thinkers and philosophers?

Coach

	Synthesizes information to develop a perceptive position supported by significant evidence.	Synthesizes information to develop a convincing position supported by relevant evidence.	Synthesizes information to develop a simplistic position supported by general evidence.	Synthesizes information to develop a vague position supported by weak evidence.
Which means...	You used unique and compelling evidence that shows you really understand what you're talking about.	You used related evidence that showed depth of thought.	You used some information from the textbook, but you didn't put your own spin on it.	You didn't provide enough evidence to make your point.
